

THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY CONFERENCE 2022
MONDAY 5 – WEDNESDAY 7 SEPTEMBER
PEMBROKE COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE

PROGRAMME

Monday

- 1:45 Welcome
- 2 Dr Martin HEALE (Liverpool), “‘He never loved fryer nor none of freiers kyn”:
Robin Hood and anticlericalism in late medieval and early Tudor England’
- 3 Tea break
- 3:30 Mr Matthias BRYSON (Cambridge), ‘The cult of St Sitha and local religious practice in fifteenth-century England’
- 4:45 Dr Laura FLANNIGAN (Oxford), ‘Narrativising dispute: the litigation tales of the Pilkington and Catesby families’
- 5:45–6:45 Dinner (available from the canteen)

Tuesday

- Breakfast (available for residents and non-residents)
- 9 Mr Matthew CLEARY (Edinburgh), ‘Testamentary law in late fifteenth-century England: a reassessment of canon influence through a 1476 embezzlement case study’
- 10:15 Dr Dean ROWLAND, “‘ffor it is forboden be the statutes and he is a Cursed”:
the auncel, clerical gravamina, the Great Charter and Henry VI’s “Coronation”
Parliament’
- 11:15 Tea break
- 11:45 Prof. Christian LIDDY (Durham), ‘Towns, lords, and urban lordship in late medieval England and continental Europe: looking beyond narratives of national distinctiveness’
- 12:45 Lunch
- 1:45 Dr Hannah SKODA (Oxford), ‘Student misbehaviour in fifteenth-century
Oxford and Paris’

- 3:00 Dr Hannes KLEINEKE (History of Parliament), 'Begging the king's pardon: royal mercy in the second half of the fifteenth century'
- 4:00 Tea break
- 4:30 Dr Sheila SWEETINBURGH (Canterbury Christ Church), 'A gateway county: migrants and other travellers in fifteenth-century Kent'
- 5:45 Dr Alex BROWN (Durham), 'Social mobility in fifteenth-century England'
- 7:30 Conference dinner

Wednesday

- Breakfast (available for residents and non-residents)
- 9 Ms Róisín DONOHOE (Cambridge), "'her comferte and consolacyoun": childbirth pain management and devotion in fifteenth-century England'
- 10:15 Dr James ROSS (Winchester), 'The "proclamation" statute of 1454, its implementation to 1460, and the effectiveness of the last years of Lancastrian government'
- 11:15 Tea break
- 11:45 Prof. James CLARK (Exeter), 'The Church and Christian humanism before Wolsey'
- 12:45 Lunch

This programme may be subject to change.